POLICY DOCUMENT ON SCHOLARSHIPS AND FREE SHIPS

(Dr. Ghali College, Gadhinglaj modifies the policy as deemed fit from time to time)

1. INTRODUCTION

The college is committed to imparting quality education to students, particularly those from rural areas and marginalized sections of society. Our mission is to provide education to all classes, with a special focus on economically and socially backward segments. As part of this mission, we support students by offering financial assistance and guidance to access government scholarships and free ships. These scholarships and free-ships are not only awarded by our educational institution but also by NGOs and private institutes, as recommended by the college.

2. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

A. Awareness about government scholarships and free ships:

- The college aims to inform students about various government scholarships and free ships available to them.
- By creating awareness, students can take advantage of these opportunities to support their education financially.

B. Assistance in scholarship form submission:

- The college provides guidance and support to students in filling out scholarship forms.
- This ensures that eligible students can apply for scholarships effectively.

C. Recommendations for financial help from Dr. Ghali College Alumni:

- The college collaborates with its alumni network to recommend deserving students for financial help.
- Alumni contributions play a crucial role in supporting current students.

D. Guidance on scholarships from the parent institute and affiliating university:

- The college guides students on scholarships awarded by the parent institute (Dr. Ghali College) and the affiliating university (Shivaji University, Kolhapur).
- This ensures that students are aware of all available scholarship opportunities.
